Sri Lanka strongly condemns the terror attack on civilians in Pul-e-Alam city in Afghanistan

Sri Lanka strongly condemns the terror attack on civilians that took place on 30 April 2021 in Pul-e-Alam city of Logar Province in Afghanistan. Indiscriminate violence against civilians, particularly students and children, demonstrates the cruelty of the perpetrators who intend to bring anarchy. Sri Lanka stands firmly with the Government of Afghanistan in its fight against terrorism to bring durable peace to the country.
