State Minister Balasuriya calls for Indian Investors to join Sri Lanka in pursuit of ‘Shared Prosperity’

State Minister for Regional Cooperation Tharaka Balasuriya invited Indian Investors to join in Sri Lanka to achieve ‘shared prosperity’ for both nations by taking the opportunity to Invest in Sri Lanka.

The Minister made these remarks at the India Country session of the Invest Sri Lanka Forum broadcasted digitally from the Shangri-La Hotel in Colombo.

The State Minister highlighted 6 key areas of interest for potential investors during his keynote address with a focus on the rubber, textile and Information Technology industries.

He also encouraged investors to utilize the special fiscal incentives on offer through the Special Economic Zones, particularly through the recently established Colombo Port City.

Organized by the Board of Investment, The Ceylon Chamber of Commerce, and the Colombo Stock Exchange, ‘Invest Sri Lanka’ was Asia’s first and largest virtual forum to attract foreign investments with over 4500 participants from over 85 countries.
